

Top Ten Signs That It's Time To Own Your Own Home

- 10. You're ready to stop paying your landlord's mortgage payment, and essentially financing his retirement.
- 9. You really need the tax deductions associated with property taxes and mortgage interest.
- 8. You want to have a vested interest in your community.
- 7. You can no longer tolerate waiting a week, in the middle of summer, for your landlord to send a repairperson to fix your air conditioning unit.
- 6. You are working at a job where you aren't required to relocate out of the country every three years.
- 5. You want to provide your family with a sense of stability and plant roots.
- 4. The number of members of your household more than double the number of bedrooms in your current residence.
- 3. You want your home to be your castle, your domain, your own property, which you can improve in any way you please.
- 2. You are tired of saving all your quarters for the laundromat.
- 1. When you say you are "going home", you want to really mean it!
